

Jesse Dylan James

December 16, 2002 - September 29, 2017

He was a wonderful Christmas present arriving on December 16 in 2002. Jeremy and Jennifer gave him a name from family and from poetry, Jesse Dylan. Jesse's great-grandfather, Jesse James, was 96 and rejoiced for his namesake.

As the firstborn son, Jesse was doted on by family and friends. His quiet demeanor in public was countered by a gregarious spirit at home and with friends. Those who knew him well appreciated his gentleness, care for others, and a spirit of kindness to all.

Jesse was very quick-witted and responsive to others. His parents agree that he was "one-of-a kind" who could discover brilliant ideas. He loved to read and had a love for many music types. These preferences gave him the tools needed to write with clarity and finesse. Jesse was also a poet.

At home, Jesse enjoyed baseball, fishing, and golf. Jesse loved to go fishing with his dad on the Little Red, and was proud when he caught a bigger trout than Jeremy. At the hands of his dad, Jesse and his brother Jonas were avid golfers, especially when a driver connected with that special click.

Like many his age (and like his dad) he enjoyed video games, but went a step further -- he liked to write code for them. His computer-coding abilities went far beyond his age. He loved Marvel Comics!

Jesse transitioned to Searcy High School six weeks ago. An "A" was a typical grade for him in school. He loved his participation in the Searcy High Marching Band as a trumpet player. He was a member of the chess club and had many good friends.

He attended Westview Missionary Baptist Church, AWANA at First Baptist Church, West Race Baptist Church, and College Church. He was also a member of K-Life youth center. He accepted Jesus as his Savior in 2015. His family will miss him dearly, especially Jennifer, Jeremy and his younger brother Jonas (11). Grandparents who will always remember him are Delton and Michele Wyatt and Mike and Beth James and one great-grandfather, Gordon Hogan. Deceased grandparents are Arnold & Edna Wyatt, Amos & Rena Sue Sinquefield, Jesse & Lona Mae James and Jane Hogan.

Aunts and Uncles include Jennifer & Aaron Green, Jessica & Cliff Collins, Jonathan & Jenna James, Brittany & Mike Clark, Kim & David Bridgforth, Jonathan & Vanessa Wyatt and David Wyatt. Jesse will be missed by all of his 17 first cousins and many other family and friends.

Visitation will be at Powell Funeral Home on Thursday evening from 6:00 until 8:00 pm, and the funeral will be at West Race Baptist Church at 2:00 pm on Friday. Burial will follow at Mt. Pisgah Cemetery.

We will all miss Jesse.

Memorials can be made to the Dr. Robert E. Elliot Foundation.

“ Michelle, Delton and Jennifer, May you find comfort in the love that surrounds you and your family, as Jesse has found comfort in the arms of the Savior. No words can ease the pain, just love and knowing that Jesse was a bright light that is shining even brighter from where he is today. His gift to this world will continue! Know that! Prayers for you.

“ I remember the Sunday that Delton, our Sunday School teacher at the time, announced to our class the birth of a new grandson. And when he told his name, he announced it in capital letters...JESSE JAMES! He was so proud and was always proud of Jesse. I am so sorry for this great loss. I love Jennifer and Jeremy and Jonas and the Wyatt family. My prayers are with you for peace and healing.

“ We knew Jesse as a sweet and smart young boy. Loved seeing seeing him at Awanas at West Race Baptist Church. He spent a lot of his time with his grandparents Delton And Michele. We were there watching the fireworks on the 4th of July and he and his brother were so excited to be with their dad setting them off. He is with his Lord now and not having a worry in this world. He will be missed in so many ways. To the family, our hearts are saddened and prayers are for all of you. You will get to be with him in Heaven someday. 🙏🙏🙏
