“ Wayne and family, we are certainly sorry to hear about Jewell. I know you will miss her but we know she is with the Lord now without pain and suffering. May God comfort you all during this very sad time.

“ Dear Wayne and family. Callie just called me a few minutes ago and advised me that Jewell passed away yesterday at home. Wayne, I'm so terribly sorry to hear of Jewell's passing, but I know how bad she suffered with the cancer. Her pain is finally over! She's resting comfortably in Heaven now, free from all sorrow and pain for eternity. But, we are left here to mourn her passing now. I haven't told Mom, yet. She'll be devastated to hear that Jewell is gone. She's still hospitalized, herself. With Mom in the shape she's in, I won't be able to travel that distance, but please know that we're there in spirit.

Christmas gatherings will never be the same without seeing Jewell's smile or hearing her infectious laughter fill the room!

Love and hugs, Tamara and Shirley.

“ Family,

While I have been away for many years you have never been far from my mind. I am sorry for your loss. I know Aunt Jewel was loved by many and will be missed. Find comfort that she is no longer suffering and will be able to walk along the streets made of gold.

With Love ~ Kimberly
