

Jim Edward Davis

June 21, 1944 - September 27, 2024

Jim Edward Davis, 80, of Judsonia, Arkansas peacefully departed this life on Friday, September 27, 2024 at his home surrounded by his loved ones. He was born June 21, 1944 in Newport, Arkansas to the late Woodrow Davis and Mary Ann Wallis. Jim was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He served his country in the United States Marine Corps for two terms; 1963-1970. During his time in the service, he received multiple awards and decorations. Jim became well known in his community and surrounding area when he opened an appliance store in Tupelo, Arkansas. Everyone knew he was honest and reliable to purchase from or to seek his expert advice. In his later years, Jim tended to a small farm that he took pride in. He enjoyed feeding his animals and spent many hours watching them from his back porch while he drank coffee. He enjoyed singing, especially Meryl Haggard songs, and watching Gunsmoke. Jim's favorite part of life was his family and grandchildren. He will be remembered by the lessons he taught them and the love he gave them.

Left to cherish his memory is his beloved wife of 55 years, Patricia Ann Davis of the home, his two daughters, Gina (Cliff) Stafford of Judsonia and Gayle Castro of Guam, eight grandchildren, Kayla (C.J.), Mandee (Cameron), Frankie, Blake, Katlyne, Hannah, Dallas (Anna), and Lindsey, twelve great grandchildren, and his four sisters.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his daughter, Christy Herndon, his son, Chris Davis, granddaughter, Katelyn Littlejohn, and seven siblings.

“ One of my favorite memories with papa will always be grabbing his big glass of sweet tea and drinking it and him saying “get your monkey lips off my glass” or all of the memories of him singing to me. You will be so missed you handsome man. 💖
