“ My heart is breaking for Mary, Hope, Tommy, and Gary and all y'all. Jimmy Dale, You taught me so much about hunting, and fishing . You made 4th of July an adventure and major challenge every year when I was little (bottle rocket wars). I was blessed to have in my " growing up years". And though life, and work, has taken me states away, I've always thought of you, all y'all and missed you. I'm grateful to God, you are free of any suffering and pain, RIP JIMMY DALE Until we meet again, and tell my papa Quency I miss him everyday.

“ One of a kind..Jimmy always caught tons of fish, gave the bestest HUGS, and could throw a " Hendrix fit" as good as my dad..but more than anything, he loved, and worked hard for Mary and his kids...

He will be missed far beyond any form of measure.

In our family, a very bright light has been dimmed.

Always loved, always missed, and will never be forgotten.
