My last active duty NCOER has your name on it and I'll never forget the impact you had on me. I watched your dog and you just gave me the keys to your Range Rover and said I could drive it around it was like we were family in such a short time. I love you jimmy RIP 🙏.

“ Jimmy from 0500 to 2100 we were always together! We took care of our Soldiers and our families. Every late night your goal was to get your kid to bed so you could say goodnight. You loved Emma more than anything in the world. This has been a rough week on me but thinking of our memories it has brought joy to me and made me realize you would call me foul names for being sad for you. One of the best memories I think I have is when you and I painted then CPT Chase face during his convoy brief in front of everyone because he wasn't 2CR standard. I love you man and I have lost a brother! I will continue to be there for our Soldiers whenever they need us and provide some "Jimmy" comments to them!
