“ we had some great times together growing up. cousins are your first best friends. I cannot remember a single Sunday where me and my brothers weren't at your house or you at mine. we had such good times and some bad ones but the love was always there. I will miss not havin you around to laugh with and share conversations with. i just thought we would have more time together..too young to be gone. I love ya "bug" and look forward to seeing you again in heaven. xoxoxoxo Les
