“ Jo Ann and her family were instrumental during the toughest part of my life by providing me not just a house to live in , but a home where I was loved just like everyone else in the family .

The Eads family are great people and I am so sorry for the loss of Jo ..

“ I will miss Mrs. Eads. She was a shining light in the Harding Admissions office, a great friend to my parents, and she and Don raised some pretty great guys, as well. Steve, Kevin, Gary and Rusty, your mom is home and free from the pain she had suffered. Mr. Eads, you're a blessed man to have shared your life with such a strong and kind woman. I pray for God's blessing for your strength during this time.

“ We are sad to hear that JoAnn has passed away, but joyful for her because she has gained the victory! JoAnn was a sweet, thoughtful lady and a wonderful friend. We will always remember the good times we shared while working at "the warehouse". Don and family, our thoughts and prayers are with you and we wish we could be there to celebrate JoAnn's life with you. God bless you and your family.
