“ My aunt and I went to her restaurant several times. She was the most kindest and she just had a very good spirit about her. I knew back several yrs ago she had to close down and we sure was sad cause she had the best fish around . It was just a little hole in the wall and she was a very hard worker , cause it was just her and maybe one other person working . I had seen her work by herself. Bless her heart ! No more pain or suffering. Until we meet again! Thanks for all the good ole catfish dinners!!

“ To the family of Ms. Taylor, I'm so sorry to learn of your loss. My name is Karen Fuller. I anchored the TV news in Little Rock for KATV in the 90s and early 2000s. I had the honor of meeting Jo Ann while enjoying the best catfish lunch I'd ever had. She apparently watched me on Channel 7, and had a photo or two in the restaurant. I wanted you to know that Jo Ann was the type of person one remembers... Her positive energy lifted countless numbers of patrons, and I'm aware she fought through adversity such as flooding in Georgetown, but persevered. You are all in my family's thoughts today. Our sincere condolences. Karen

“ Our Deepest Sympathy & Condolences, to the families, of Joe Ann Taylor.

She was a very sweet person. When we entered her restaurant, no matter how busy she was, she always found the time to greet us, & make sure that we had a place, to sit down & eat her delicious catfish plate.

She was a fascinating person, & will be missed, by her many friends.
