

Joe Edwin Lowrey

August 20, 1932 - May 30, 2013

Joe Edwin Lowrey, 80, of Searcy died May 30, 2013, at White County Medical Center. He resided at River Oaks assisted Living facility.

As a young man Joe served 2 years in the Army. He spent most of his life in Searcy. While living in California for a short period he drove a moving van.

When returning to Searcy he established his own electrical company.

Joe's eyesight began to fail, so he sold his home and moved to Harding Place.

Total blindness led him to move to the assisted living facility. Being blind, Joe decided to write a book on the first phase of his life which he did.

Joe had 3 children; two sons, Van and Joey (deceased); and a daughter Joanda Lowrey.

Joe was a licensed commercial pilot. One thing he loved was flying his single engine plane he named Snoopy.

Joe was one of 14 children. Surviving siblings are: I. V. Bogle, Beebe, Arkansas, Jessie Burl Lowrey, Carson, California, John Milton Lowrey, Running Springs, California and Ollie Huntsman, San Diego, CA.
