“ Joe just good old Joe. There's not enough pages to wright all the memories and great things he has done for me. He would give his last dime and do without for himself. Just to know his friends and family had what they needed. He loved his kids and they were always first. He was a great friend and I loved him like a dad. I already miss him so much

“ I met Joe in the 80's when he came to work welding satellite dishes in Jacksonville. He was so kind and sweet and always lifted your spirits when he knew you needed it with wisecracks and jokes. He was a good friend and confidante over the years and will be missed more than he would ever know.

Joe was always a kind brother in law to me. I enjoyed my talks with him. We had reconnected a few years ago and he and I would talk on the phone for hours. It's sad to think he has been suffering and in pain for quite a while. He will be missed. HUGS and healing to his family and friends. Delores M
