“ Helen, Margie and I were sorry to see where Joe Tom had passed away, we wish the best for you and your family. You, Q.C. and your Mother were three of my favorite people. My cousin Jack Byler and I ran into Joe Tom on East Race Street three or four years ago and said hello, that was the first time I had seen him in quite a long time since I now live in Little Rock.

“ *Our love and prayers go out to you and your family in this time of need. Joe always met us with a smile and he was so helpful at the bank. My dad was in the same room at the nursing home with Joe and Mary Beth's dad. My husband and myself graduated with Jo Carol and Mary Jean The O'Guin and the Gentry families have always had a special place in our heart. May God help you during your time of need. John O.
