“ Sending prayers of comfort to everyone from your Oklahoma family! It's so hard to believe that Joe is gone. I may not have been around much, but Joe always stood out to me because of how outgoing and sweet he was to everyone. He was always laughing or being ornery. From the pictures I've seen, he had a beautiful family. Something I'm sure he was very proud of and we were proud for him as well. We will be thinking of all of you and pray that you will be surrounded by peace through all of this. Love you all.
