

Joe Spaulding

January 30, 2013

Dr. Joe Powell Spaulding, 95, of Romance, Arkansas, died Wednesday, January 30, 2013. He was born June 12, 1917 in Pocahontas, Arkansas, the son of Ira Lee and Mollie Spaulding.

He is survived by a daughter, Fran (Gary) Goss of Romance; a son, Joe (Carol) Spaulding, Jr. of Austin, Texas; six grandchildren, Michael (Kim) Spaulding, Coburn (Natasha) Goss, Dawn (Rich) Clevenger, Whitney (Marc) Festervand, Taryn (Jimmy) Lewis, and Tony (Kim) Roncketto; 11 great-grandchildren, Jadyn, Cole, Shelby, Cailey, Chloe, Ally, Nate, Jamison, Eva, Luci and Tatum; and a brother, Jack Spaulding. He is preceded in death by his parents and a grandson, Kent Spaulding.

Dr. Spaulding preached for 77 years in many places throughout the United States, and he was a professor at Oklahoma Christian College, Harding College, Abilene Christian University, and York College.

Tribute Wall

RR

“ We loved Dr. Joe and will miss him very much. He was such a power house for the church. and especially the Romance church. We also love all of you. Few people have memories of such quality to hold on to

Richard & Johnnie Rodgers - February 10, 2016 at 03:44 PM

JC

“ To the Spaulding Family,
Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of Dr. Joe. Also, sincere thanks for for his life and the many times he inspired me to stand a little taller and walk more briskly. Joe and Dixie gave us so many beautiful memories. Will be thinking of you as your celebrate Joe's life and home going.

Jim Caldwell - February 10, 2016 at 03:44 PM

JR

“ Please accept my condolences in the death of a wonderful Christian man. During Joe's years at ACU I was greatly privileged to be both a friend and a colleague in the History Department at Abilene Christian University. I came to know and to love Joe and his remarkable wife, Dixie, and my wife and I deeply valued their friendship. Of course, while I appreciated Joe's scholarship I also savored Dixie's great cooking! They were a wonderful couple, a great example for all those who knew them. We will miss Joe as a Christian mentor, a colleague in education, and, most simply, a great friend.

Dr. John L. Robinson

John Robinson - February 10, 2016 at 03:44 PM

MH

“ I am so sorry to hear about Brother Joe's Passing.. I enjoyed hearing his stories of his earlier years of when Dr. Biggs first worked on his teeth.. I also always got a chuckle when he would ask if my older sister was my mom..." she is old enough" i would say.. He was loved by many he will be missed.

Melanie Hollis - February 10, 2016 at 03:44 PM