“ In loving memory of my brother, John. 08/04/1948~05/28/2012.

May your endurance and strength be realized and may you forever rest in peace.

A Wish And A Prayer

May your spirit soar in freedom

From the disease that gripped so tight.

May you find the peace you longed for

As you lay suffering, on that Memorial Day night.

May your pain and suffering be clear and calm

And your tender heart be warm.

May you have no need for strength now.

May there never be another storm.

May the music of the angels be the sweet sounds that you hear. As you're rocked in Heaven's cradle

May you never shed another tear. I'll wear your memory proudly, My only brother...my true friend.

May my love for you reach Heaven above

Until we meet again.

I Love you, Sis

“ So many hearts are saddened because of your passing; however, it brings some happiness when we think about your sense of humor, your military service and your great big laugh. I know you suffered here on earth, but those days are now over. No more suffering, heartache or pain any more. I know it makes me feel a little better that you're up there watching over us all. It's your turn Uncle John....go rest high on that mountain....Love your nephew, Allen

“Daddy I use to always try to keep up with you and would wonder where you are and what you were doing but now I don't have to worry about that anymore because you are in Heaven with my mama. GOD knows my pain but I would rather him have the both of you than be here on this EARTH suffering. Daddy I love you and I am so proud of your legacy as a Veteran and I will always honor Memorial Day as your day because you held on and chose that day to go home. I salute with honor Daddy. Your daughter, Ree Ree

“Teresa and Patricia, Johnny and I were cousins. We had fun together as kids, playing with Dickie, Tom and I. I am so sorry to hear of his death. You are both in my thoughts and prayers.
