“ I used to work with John. He was always helpful to me at work. He was a good friend. I'll always remember his smile, his kindness, and his energy.

“ John has been such a leader at our church for all my life, he will missed so much. John lived what he taught. A wonderful christian and friend to Eddie and I. A void that cannot be filled will be left “ We've known John Irby for many years and are better for it. All who knew him knew he was a man of conviction who loved the Lord with all his heart.

He also loved learning and I had the pleasure of helping him master the computer. Not many would take on such a challenge at his age, but not him. He wasn't afraid of a challenge. We could all learn something from that - he was a great example!

I was also blessed to be in his Sunday school class for a while and I remember him expounding on the condition of our country and he would always go back to the verse in Psalms 37 - "Fret not thyself because of evildoers." He is no longer fretting :)

He will be greatly missed!
