“ *I remember all those Sunday School lessons John taught us at Center Hill . It is because of the foundation in Bible study by great Christian men like John that I have been able to gain enough insight to teach/lead classes of my own now. I remember all the fun we had doing Youth Fellowship with Cindy... and trying to get rid of the "Pesty little Brother". Much love and many thoughts & prayers to you and your family. “ Sanderson Family,

It was with great sadness that Linda and I read John's obituary yesterday in the paper. Over the years we have had contact many times through the Lord's work. He was always so upbeat and seemed to enjoy life and especially the Christian life. I will always remember one time when I was in Searcy and the old truck I was driving was not acting right. John checked the oil and the stick would not even register. He went and got oil and I think it took quite a bit to fill it up. He told me that I should check the oil level from time to time. We send our heartfelt thoughts and prayers to your family. Heaven has become a little sweeter.

*God Bless,
