“ When Johnathon was really young, Mawmaw Coggin had a prosthetic leg due to amputation from poor circulation. He kept going over and tapping it because he was young and was curious (because that's just how Bubba was) and then would run off. Finally Mawmaw just told him, (you wanna see my leg, well here it is) and took it off and tossed it by him. Needless to say he never wanted to see her leg again, lol!

“ I cant help but think how this stranger walked down our road and on his journey some of the neighbors saw him pass, some of us didnt. But very quickly we became familiar with his picture and his family. I prayed and that God would bring him safely home. Little did i know but God had already brought home. This weekend as you say your final goodbyes and celebrate his life smile as you think of the celebration he is having in the presence of our Lord. The pain of him no longer being with you all is a pain that only God can comfort. I pray you continue to lean on God and each other. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Rae ann baker

“ Johnathon had a sweet smile that would light up a room and made you feel right at home when we stayed at his place a few years back. My husband enjoyed talking with him, Tom loved history and politics he would say that is one smart young man after they would talk. Johnathon was a sweet young Christian young man with a very kind heart and that big beautiful smile. You are home now Johnathon say hi to myTom Gods blessings,comfort and peace I pray for your family,how loved you are and know will be very missed 🙏❤️✝️

“ Jonathan was a dear, hardworking, Christian young man, and words fail to express how much we liked and loved him. It is so hard to realize that he has departed from planet earth. We have known his family since before he was born, and always considered him and Kristie to be part of our family even though they were actually "extended family." We appreciated his morals, work ethic, sense of humor and the way he loved family. We will miss him so much-- especially at family gatherings. May the Lord bless and keep this family, and give them peace. --Bob & Shelby Mills
