

Mr. Jon Edwin Browning

June 2, 1936 - February 16, 2024

Jon Edwin Browning, 87, of Searcy (formally of New Providence, New Jersey), passed away from this life Friday, February 16, 2024. He was born June 2, 1936, in Aurora Missouri. After serving in the U.S. Army, Jon advanced to senior associate with Chemical Engineering for Exxon Mobil, holding many positions there serving as head of multiple departments, he was published in a magazine by McGraw-Hill, and served on the New Providence City Council.

A servant of Christ, Jon spent many years as a faithful member of the Chatham Church of Christ in Chatham, New Jersey. He was known for his wonderful stories and breaking out into church hymns, capturing the hearts of those around him. He met the love of his life, Alice, at 16th and Decatur Church of Christ while working for the Army at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C. They married April 9, 1960, and remained married until her death July 20, 2023.

Jon is survived by his sister, Mary Hale, his nieces and nephews: Norman Hale and his wife Tonia, Gerri Lilly and her husband David, Judy Hall and her husband David, Derek Browning and his wife Jessie, and Melaine Elkins and her husband Ricky. Jon is also survived by a host of great-nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his wife of 63 years, Mary Alice, parents Delmer and Grace Browning, sister Ruth Browning, and brother Delmar Browning.

The family would like to thank Providence Memory Care staff for their love and care. The family request those who wish to express sympathy to consider making a contribution to Chatham Church of Christ in Jon and Alice Browning's name. The church they both loved. Chatham Church of Christ 382 Fairmount Ave, Chatham NJ 07928.

Services will be private.
