“ To the entire family, we are praying for you all. I have a son that served in the 189th National Guard Unit in South Arkansas. I cannot imagine what you are going thru but I would like to say Thank You for his service and his bravery. May God Place His Loving Arms around each of you and help you to find peace during this difficult time. God is the All Knowing and only He can heal your pain. He will always be a TRUE HERO

“ Dear Richardson family, you do not know me but I feel your pain. I lost my brother February 3, 2010, when his helicopter crashed in Mannheim, Germany. I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I know you are struggling with the reality of all this right now but take comfort in the overwhelming support from your friends, family, and even strangers. Our heroes are together in heaven and are watching over us. Even though we cannot understand why this happened, please know they will live on through us every day until we meet them again. Peace be with you.

“ I do not know you all, but feel your pain, knowing God is your Refuge a help and strength. we had a son in the Navy over 20 years and are so thankful he came back to us. God only knows why He took this young man Home so soon, but Rest In His Promise that He will never leave nor forsake you, Ever!!! One day, soon, we hope, we will all gather together in that heavenly Home and Rejoice! Til then....Keep Pressing on! Bless each of you and may the sweet Holy Spirit comfort you, in Jesus' name. Yours in The Faith

“ To the Richardson family,
Even though I have never met you or your family, your son has been in my prayers. My nephew is in Afganistan now and I pray for him and all the soldiers that are fighting to protect our freedom. My heart goes out to you for your loss.
Respectfully,
