“ Before his retirement, Joe worked for many years for Virginia's Department of Information Technology (DIT), later renamed the Virginia Information Technologies Agency (VITA). I had the pleasure of working with Joe for much of that time. Besides being an extremely competent information technology specialist, he was a loyal friend to his co-workers. He had a smile for everyone, and was always ready to help others with their problems, whether they were work-related or not. Knowing Joe was simply a joy.

“ I knew Joe from coin collecting and his time assisting and teaching others at Capital City Coins in Richmond. His honesty, warmth, and quirky humor endeared him to all who knew him. I shall cherish his friendship.
