“Joyce was a devout Catholic. She was a parishioner of St. Richard in Bald Knob. She attended Mass as long as she was able. Once she felt like she could no longer drive I would pick her up and take her to Mass. Joyce loved talking about her children and grandchildren. They were the joys of her life. When she could no longer attend Mass in person different Parishioners would take her Communion at her home and then the Nursing Home. She was always eager for the service and receiving Jesus in the Eucharist. She said it made her week. She loved to show me her well used Bible. She has read it completely through over 15 times. She loved the Lord and she lived her life showing her love and devotion to Him. We have missed having her at Mass with us for a long time but we never quit praying for her. She was a quiet but sweet lady. She is home with her precious Bob now. Oh, how she loved him and missed him when he was gone. Her daughter, Patty, moved in to help her care for Bob and stayed on to take care of her. She loved her and was very proud of her and her craftiness. Eternal Rest Grant Unto Joyce, O Lord and let Perpetual light shine upon her. May Joyces soul and the souls of all the Faithful Departed through the Mercy of God, Rest in Peace. Amen.
