

Juanita King

January 21, 1922 - June 29, 2010

Juanita Weaver King, 88, of Kensett died Tuesday, June 29, 2010.

Mrs. King taught school for 37 years, was a member of the Kensett Church of Christ. She enjoyed reading and knew the bible thoroughly. Mrs. King loved to fish, "RVing" and traveling.

She was preceded in death by her husband of over 60 years, Hardie King; a daughter Robbie Abbott; brothers Denver and Dewayne Weaver; and a great-grandchild, McKenzie Grace Roberson. Surviving is a son, Fred King and wife Lynia of Kensett; a brother, Albert Weaver and wife Lillie of Cabot; grandchildren, Rhonda Benskin and husband Jimmy of Judsonia, Chris Abbott and wife Christie of Cabot, Nicole Holt and husband John of Searcy and Ashley Vaden of Conway; great-grandchildren, Zachary Hoofman, Macee Abbott, Hunter Vaden, Carson Benskin and London Holt; and several nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Sorry for your loss. We all loved Aunt Jaunita. We will all miss her.

July 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM