

Juanita L. Litzelfelner

January 6, 1920 - March 16, 2007

Helen Juanita Litzelfelner, age 87, of Bald Knob, died unexpectedly on March 16, 2007, at her home. Mrs. Litzelfelner was born in Bald Knob, Ark., on Jan. 6, 1920, the daughter of Thomas Watt and Helen Francis Leggett. A graduate of Piggott High School of Piggott, Ark., she attended both Ouachita Baptist College in Arkadelphia, Ark., and the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, where she received her bachelor's degree in music. She began a career in banking at an early age, working at Piggott State Bank in Piggott, Ark. She also served as church organist at First Baptist Church in Piggott for over 15 years. After the death of her father, she moved back to the town of her birth to continue her career at Citizens State Bank as Chairman of the Board, where she worked for 36 years. Mrs. Litzelfelner was a past member of the Baptist Health Corporate Board in Little Rock. She continued her service as an advisory member of the Baptist Health Foundation Board. Her love of and talent for music was demonstrated through her long-time involvement with the Searcy Beethoven Club. Mrs. Litzelfelner was a member of the Bald Knob Rotary Club and a board member of the Bald Knob Public Education Foundation. She was also a member of Central Baptist Church in Bald Knob.

Mrs. Litzelfelner was preceded in death by husbands, Lowell A. Goforth, who died in France during World War II, and Ralph Lee Litzelfelner, who died June 30, 1999. Mrs. Litzelfelner is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Molly Helen Goforth Kircher and Larry Kircher of Bald Knob; granddaughters, Laura and Kenny Hays of Benton, Jennifer and Scott Self of Little Rock; great-grandchildren, Brandon and Marie Mueller of Benton; one brother and sister-in-law, T. W. and Martha Leggett of Memphis, Tenn.

Memorials may be made to Central Baptist Church; P. O. Box 226, Bald Knob, AR 72010.

“ Molly, I have viewed the memorial - Thanks for sharing it - I remember her, of course, as she looked in the picture of her alone - the dark hair and beautiful eyes. You look a lot like your father.
