“ Justin was one of a kind, that is for sure. No matter what, even no matter how mad he could make you, he'd end up with making you laugh and saying, "luyva"...

This verse has gotten me through so much so to hear it at his funeral brought joy to my heart...

"The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

Love you all!!!

“ There are no words I can say to ease your pain. Here is a little poem that I thought was special, maybe it will help you in some small way.

*THERE ARE MANY things we don't understand.
That we'll wait to find out in another land.
Many things that are deep in our heart.
That we wonder about from the end to the start.
Things that are mysteries. Things that we hide.
Things that we think on, we can not deny.
Things that we trust we can make it through.
Things we don't know if we can do.
Things God allows. And then we look up.
And know it's OK, for God IS enough*

“ *May you find peace
in God's promise
of eternal life. May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love,
and peace in knowing
your friends are praying
for you.
Thinking you and your family.*
