

Kenneth McAdams

October 22, 2010

Kenneth "Cowboy" McAdams, 77, of Jacksonville, died Friday, October 22, 2010. He was born on October 14, 1933 in Judsonia, Arkansas, the son of Paul Francis and Orcelia Byrd McAdams.

Kenneth is survived by his daughter, Kendra McAdams of Sherwood; a special friend, Maryann Morden; grandchildren Donovan and Madison Montgomery, Ashley McDowell (J.D.), and Alicia and Abby McAdams; his former wife, Syble Taylor; three sisters, Mary Pauline Hardcastle (J.C.), Wilda Sue Gibson (Van), and Mary Francis Spurlock (Jewel). He is preceded in death by his parents and two sons, Kent Radel McAdams and Paul Raymond McAdams; and a sister, Irma Cothran.

Kenneth served in the United States Army during the Korean Conflict, and later retired from the U.S. Postal Service after 30 years service. He was the president of the Central Arkansas Horse Show Association for three years, having also served as secretary for that organization for 10 years. He was an avid hunter who trained hunting dogs. Kenneth attended Harding College for three years.

Funeral services will be Monday at 3:00 p.m. at Powell Funeral Home Chapel of Bald Knob. Visitation will be Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the funeral home. w

*“ I want to thank everyone for their kind thoughts, comments and prayers for my father and our family in our time of need. It is a joy to know he was as special to others as he was to me and will not be forgotten. A father and daughter relationship is always special and a lose that can never be replaced. Thank you again for all of your kind comments. Your wonderful stories of how wonderful he was will help us in our time of loss. God bless you and your families.

“ Condolences to all. My first thoughts were of the many good times Kenneth and I had together over the years, hunting and just running around having fun. All I have are fond memories of Kenneth, which I guess speaks to the way he lived his life.
God bless,
