

Kenneth Robertson

August 31, 2010

Kenneth Sando Robertson, 35, of Searcy, died Tuesday, August 31, 2010. He was born December 11, 1974 in Little Rock, Arkansas, the son of Marvin and Hiroko Robertson.

Kenny was a graduate of the class of 1993 at Harding Academy. He attended Texas A & M and graduated in 1998 with a B. S. in Mechanical Engineering. Upon graduation, he was commissioned into the United States Marine Corp where he served as a helicopter pilot, eventually flying for VMR-1 as a search and rescue pilot. After 10 years of military service, he re-located to Searcy and began flying for Air-EVAC Life Team out of Vilonia.

Kenny is survived by his wife, Angie Robertson; two sons, Kale and Archie; one daughter, Abby; his parents, Marvin and Hiroko Robertson of Searcy; a brother, Wilson Robertson and his wife Tonya of Austin, Texas; two sisters, Andrea Baker and her husband Jay of Springfield, Missouri, and Jill Robertson of Shizuoka, Japan; in-laws, Wade and Sandra Green of Nashville, Tennessee; one brother-in-law, Joseph Green and his wife Maggie of Nashville, Tennessee; three nephews, four nieces, and one honorary brother, Mike Owen and his wife Amanda of Ewa Beach, Hawaii; and many friends and a large college-student family.

Kenny spent time attempting to be a professional golfer, but settled for beating his dad. He loved serving others through flying. He was a dedicated Texas Aggie who loved camping and riding bikes with his children. He and Angie shared a special happy marriage. Ten years wasn't long enough. He was a member of the Downtown Church of Christ.

Kenny embodied Christ in many ways as he governed his household with wisdom, enthusiastically looked for service and outreach opportunities as well as exhibited genuine concern, care and love for others. He was gifted with incredible intelligence and was a beloved counselor and friend. We eagerly await the day we'll be re-united with him as well as all the other saints in Christ when our great Lord comes again.

Memorial services will be at 9:00 a.m. Saturday at the Downtown Church of Christ in Searcy. Visitation will be Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Downtown Church of Christ of Searcy. www.powellfuneralhome.net

Tribute Wall

SJ

“ Kenny it is now 2023 I was just sitting at home at 1 am lol and you popped into my head. I have a lot of good memories with Kenny. I went to Harding academy with him for 6th and part of 7th grade. And had the honor to have a conversation with him before he passed. I will be forever grateful for that . Anyway RIP my friend you will be forever missed FLY HIGH!!!

Shane jones - June 04, 2023 at 04:14 AM

“ Angie and family,
We've thought of you constantly since we first heard. Time spent with you in your home or in the "Young Marrieds" class gave us so many good memories! Praise God for the ability to remember. And praise God for sharing people like Kenny with all of us. We will all see him again! What a day that will be!

March 29, 2013 at 02:12 PM

“ Marvin and Roki,

Ron and I are praying for you all. Father, only you can fully understand their pain and sorrow that they are experiencing and so Father I am asking that you please comfort them as only you know how..please Father help them during the dark hours when the hurting is so great and remind them of your wonderful promises and ease their pain as only you can. Bring to their minds wonderful memories of their beloved son, husband and brother. Because of Jesus, Bev Bontrager

March 29, 2013 at 02:12 PM

“ I am so sorry we have all lost Kenny. From the time he was a small boy, he has been a good friend to my sons and a wonderful student. May you find peace and comfort until the happy thoughts come again.

March 29, 2013 at 02:12 PM

“ Robertson Family,

I'm a better person for having known Kenny. Put very simply, Kenny was a great man. I will forever be thankful for his presence in my life.

Love to all,

Matt

September 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We pray that God will wrap his loving arms around you during this time. We are so saddened about your loss. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers.

Bruce and Susan Smith

Chad, Elizabeth and Riley Smith

Bryan and Amy Smith

September 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We are so sorry to hear about your loss. How very tragic. You are all in our prayers and will continue to be. May God bless you as you learn life without him. Love and prayers, Dave and Sandra Mountain Home, AR

September 06, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ On behalf of the family of Gayla Gregory, I would like to send our heartfelt condolences to your family. You have been in our constant thoughts and prayers. May the Lord give you strength and comfort in the weeks, months, and years to come. How truly blessed we are to have such wonderful Heros in our lives. R.I.P Air Evac 30

September 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ To Kenny?s family and friends,

I didn?t know Kenny. But after what little I have read, I know that it would have been an honor to know him! A man of Christ, a man of example, a man among men? Former Aggie, Former Marine.

I fly with Memorial Hermann Life Flight in Houston, TX. I?m Texas A&M class of ?96. My heart is broken and the words are hard to find? The air-medical industry mourns with you, the Aggie family mourns with you, and the Family in Christ mourns with you!

No words will make this any easier, but I pray over time you will all find a certain solace and peace knowing that Kenny has heard ? Well done?? as Christ welcomed him with open arms!

We will be praying for you!

September 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Robertson family, I wanted to express my heartfelt sorrow over the loss of Kenny. He was such a shining example of Christian faith and my heart is heavy with his passing. I am heartbroken that I cannot make it back to AR for the service, but I know that you're blanketed in loving support. Rarely have I met anyone that served God with such a whole heart & Kenny encouraged everyone around him with his example to strive harder and go further. The world is infinitely poorer for his absence, but I pray healing blessings of comfort for the entire family.

September 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Angie, Marvin, Roki, Andrea, Wilson, Jill, and the rest of the family. I'm so sorry... it is a bit hard to imagine a world without Kenny. I still remember meeting Kenny the first time 30 years ago in Wednesday night Bible class. His love for God and for Angie and the kids was a wonderful example. You are all in my prayers. I love you!

September 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM