“ I JUST read about Kevin's passing. I am very sorry to hear about this. I knew him in college (JMU). We spent quite a bit of time together- especially our freshman year. I enjoyed his company greatly.

My sincerest regrets.

“ *Good by for now my Friend.
May you be as free as the wind, as soft as the sheep's wool, as straight as an arrow, that you may journey into the heart of GOD.*

“ Good bye, old comrade. Nearly 40 years of friendship is not a small thing, and we don't suffer its loss easily. You will be missed, but will live on in our memories and thoughts.

Requiescat in pace, Kevin.

“ Evelyn, I knew Kevin through Civil War re-enacting. He was a very special person and it was an honor to have known him. I pray the Lord blesses you with a peace that surpasses all understanding.

“ We will always remember the fun times Civil War reenacting with Kevin. He could bring a whole crowd to laughter with his funny stories - especially when in his "Lt. Belevedere" persona. People like him made those events a fun time for all. He was also so kind and welcoming to us when we joined the hobby. For all those things, we are truly grateful to have know him.

“ Dear Evelyn,

In a purely selfish way, I'm so sorry God called Kevin home. But, I rejoice in the fact he no longer feels the pains of age and a life time of hard work. I was very blessed to call him my friend for all these years and will miss him terribly. May God bless you and hold you in his hands for safe keeping.
