To my beloved wife,

I write this message with a heavy heart. I love you Kia, more than any words could explain. You've gifted me with the most beautiful little girl in the world and many years of happiness. As much as it hurts me to say I am so thankful that you are no longer in pain. You get to finally see your mom again after so long and to get to meet your baby brother who you've long to meet your whole life. You are leaving behind 3 beautiful children and an adoring husband. All of us are going to miss you so dearly. We love you so much but after this long 2 year battle we are so thankful that you can rest in peace. I will see you again my love. I love you and I will always miss you.

Your loving husband, Julian
