“ I met LA on a dozen or so occasions; my brother is married to his daughter. He was infallibly funny, friendly, and out-going: a very real pleasure to be around. Through his illness, he remained an excellent example of grace under fire. He is missed and my thoughts go out to his family.

“ L.A. was always a soft spoken, kind hearted man. He was a very likable man and was liked by all. He was funny and witty at times. Card games was always fun with him, he loved, as did his dad to stick you with the card they called the "Old Lady" . As he gave you the card he said "Bam!" Knowing you where stuck with it and you just lost. He was a jokester.He will be missed.
