

Lanny Ashburn

January 12, 1950 - April 10, 2011

Lanny Leroy Ashburn, 61, of McCrory died Sunday, April 10, 2011 at Woodruff County Health Center.

Lanny was born January 12, 1950 in Hickory Ridge, the son of Franklin Leroy Ashburn and Geraldine McClanahan Ashburn. He was a 1969 graduate of Hall High in Little Rock. For most of his life, Lanny owned and operated Beneficial Exterminating Company in Little Rock. He enjoyed part-time work at Tipton Hurst delivering flowers for many years until his health began to decline.

Lanny loved gardening, bowling, and the Arkansas Razorbacks, but his greatest passion was baseball which he excelled at. For numerous summers, He could be found on the diamond sponsoring and coaching youth baseball. He was affectionately nicknamed, Coach Kid.

Survivors include a nephew, Jason Nott; many aunts and uncles, including Jane Robertson, Mary Lawman, Marlene McDonald, and Judy Criswell, all of McCrory; as well as numerous cousins and extended family and friends.

Lanny was preceded in death by his father, Leroy Ashburn; his mother, Geraldine Ashburn; his sister, Patty Ann Nott.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Slocum Cemetery near Tilton.

Arrangements by Powell Funeral Homes. www.powellfuneralhome.net

Tribute Wall

JM

“ I have known Lanny since I was very young. He lived up the street from me. There are so many funny stories about Lanny you could never tell them all. He knew pest and termite control better than anyone in Little Rock. God Bless Him!

John Merck - March 29, 2013 at 02:11 PM