Larry Allen Daughety Jr. passed away March 27, 2018 surrounded by family. He was born February 28, 1963 in Memphis, TN. He lived in Michigan and Indiana. In the first grade his family moved to Searcy, Arkansas where he attended Harding Academy. For the last 10 years, Larry worked for Arkansas Wholesale Lumber in Little Rock, Arkansas and was assistant manager. However, many years of his career were spent as a Bible teacher, Choral Director and teacher of music at several Christian schools including Goodpasture Christian School, Midland Christian School, Ezell-Harding Christian School, Ouachita Christian School, Central Arkansas Christian School, and Alabama Christian Academy. He pursued a Master of Arts in Music at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. He was a lifelong student, teacher and lover of music. It has been said that his passion and excitement for music was contagious. His love for music impacted the lives of so many—his family, his classmates, and his students.

“ I loved Larry. He was my oldest nephew. My special memory was reading a book to him called When the whales go by” over and over again. He was a faithful Christian and now at peace. That says everything as to who he was. Aunt Beth
