

LaVerne Schnebly

January 15, 1926 - December 11, 2012

LaVerne Webb Schnebly, 86, of Little Rock, AR, died peacefully on Tuesday, December 11, 2012. LaVerne was born January 15, 1926, in Sidney, AR, the youngest child of Harmon Davis and Effie Laffoon Webb.

LaVerne, a retired school teacher, spent her career teaching business at Rose Bud High School. She received a B.S.E. from Arkansas State Teachers' College, now UCA, where she was a member of the National Honor Sorority, Alpha Chi.

She was preceded in death by her husband, the love of her life, Ernest Schnebly, who served as superintendent of Rose Bud Schools and assistant Superintendent for the Arkansas School for the Blind and by her sister, Estelle Anthony, and brothers, Davis and Odus Webb.

She is survived by her son, Jim Schnebly, and by her grandchildren, the joy in her life, Josh, Karey, and Michael Schnebly.

Memorials in her name can be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

“ So sorry for your loss. I had Mrs. Schnebly as a typing teacher and Mr. Schnebly was my superintendent. He actually hired me as a math teacher at Rose Bud where I taught for 29 years! What a wonderful and caring couple they were as well as fabulous teachers and mentors. I always had such admiration for her and Mr. Schnebly. They are both missed so much.
