

Lewis E. Crigger

July 13, 1935 - August 31, 2007

Lewis Edward Crigger, 72, of Searcy died Friday afternoon, August 31st at St. Vincent's Infirmary in Little Rock. He was born July 13, 1935 in Williamson, West Virginia to Joseph and Elsa Crigger.

Lewis received his secondary education at Greenbrier Military School in Lewisburg, West Virginia before graduating from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville in 1957 with a business degree. He was a retired CPA.

Lewis is survived by his brother, Harry (Teresa) Crigger of Lakewood, California; his wife, Martha Crigger of Searcy; his daughter, Molly (David) McWhorter of Little Rock; two grandchildren, Madisen and Carter McWhorter; one nephew, David Crigger; one niece Susan Thatcher.

Tribute Wall

“ Martha and Molly, I am so sorry that we could not be at Butch's service. We were at mom and dad's. We talked about your family this weekend and how much a part of our childhood you guys were. Please know that you both are in our prayers and have our deepest sympathy. God bless you, Sonny, Sherri, Justin and Brian Bull.

September 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Mrs. Crigger - I saw the obituary in today's paper. I started work for the City of Des Arc in January, 1989. Mr. Crigger had been doing the utility audits for the City many years prior to my starting work there. I had the pleasure to meet and work with him from 1989 until about 1999, when he did his last audit for us for the year 1998. He was a joy to work with. The last time I saw him, was at Sam's a couple of years ago or more, when you and he were doing some shopping. We have really missed him. I'm sure he worked under more Mayors than I have for the city. Just wanted to let you know the City of Des Arc is very sorry for your loss.

Carolyn Hambrick, Comptroller for City of Des Arc.

September 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM