“ We used to attend Highway Church of Christ. My husband's birthday is also July 9; he used to tease Lisa by telling her since they had the same birthday of July 9, they must be twins and, he should get a share of her birthday presents. She would tell him, "No No No Freddie', then laugh real big. We always enjoyed her sweet personality. Fred and Carolyn Duncan

“ I don't even know where to start but my last visit to Lisa was exactly 1 week before she died. I told Lisa I would bring her some Reese's cups next time I came. So I'm going to bring Reese's cups with me one last time. I loved Lisa and I know she loved me. That's about all I can say! I'm going to miss her but I'm equally proud she gained angel wings and she's at peace with God!
I hope she is now with her mom, Dorothy too! Love the whole family.

“ I will miss you my sweet friend. You brought joy to me every time I would see you. You brightened up our days at the group home. Lisa and I would pick at each other, and to aggravate her and also to make her laugh, I'd say, "Lisa P Rat." She'd laugh and call me Ransom. I love you Lisa and I hope you'll be the door greeter when I see you in Heaven. Donna Ramsey

I remember taking her to a country concert at Harding University. I can't remember who was singing, but she knew every song. She was so amazing and loving. Many prayers for the family.
