

Lloyd Elliott

December 11, 1917 - November 13, 2010

Lloyd Lewis Elliott, age 92, of Searcy, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, November 13, 2010. Lloyd was born on December 11, 1917 to Elizabeth and George M. Elliott of Miller, Arkansas (now Greers Ferry).

Lloyd was an avid gardener, having a sizeable garden well into his 80's. He worked tirelessly in his garden year after year, and enjoyed providing vegetables to his friends, family and neighbors. He was also a member of Valley Baptist Church and was very active with the church, having last served as a deacon.

Lloyd was preceded in death by his loving wife, Jewell, and four sisters: Ethel, Atlas, Ruth and Lallie, his twin.

He is survived by two children: Gary Elliott (Tracy), and Wanda Summers (Jim), both of Searcy. Three grandchildren: Steve Parish (Sherri) of Cabot, Bruce Parish of Searcy, and Stephen Elliott of Little Rock. Three great grandchildren: Zachary Parish, Andrew Parish and Ross Parish.

Tribute Wall

“ Wanda, Your Dad, and Mom, were special friends of my parents and through them they became special to me and to my sister, Erma.
I treasure their friendship and it comforts me to know that they are all five together in heaven. What a happy reunion. Surely there is a garden there, for them

“ To The Elliott Family:
He is now at peace, walking, talking and hearing everything that is being said in heaven by Jesus. He was a gentleman who loved the Lord. I remember him taking a part in the Deacon Ordination of my brother 22 years ago. My Brother is a third generation deacon. May God Bless you during this time.

“ Wanda...so very sorry to hear about your Dad..Jim and I was talking and thinking about how long we have known him...they worked at Benco together and that has been over 30 years ago...Your Dad was one of a kind and your Mom too...we will always remember them and so blessed to have met them. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family during this time of sorrow.
