“ The first time I met Lee, 20+ years ago, I liked him instantly! On our second encounter, I was having personal problems, and my car was broken down, and I had to get everything I had ever owned from a storage building in Newark , or I was going to lose it. I had given up on it. I was telling Regina about it, and Lee said "I'll bring my truck and trailer, and we will go get it in the morning." I thought "yeah, right," as many had promised to do so but never came through because I had nothing to offer them, not even gas money. The next morning, he was in my driveway at 6:30am, honking for me to come on. That was the kind of man he was. He was honest, he was loyal, he was real, and he was my friend, through thick and then, for more than 2 decades. My heart is absolutely broken. But I am lucky to have ever had a friend like Lee Jackson. Love you, Lee, always and forever!

“ So sorry for your loss. Praying for you all. Lee is my cousin. Wilma Stroud is my mom and his Aunt. I really don't remember seeing Lee since he was a small boy. I can't picture him at Aunt Lou's funeral. I'm just so sorry for you all to be going through this. Poor babies to loose their daddy. God be with.
