“ I knew Lois through the writers' group that we both belonged to. She worked hard for many years to cultivate her writing, and told absolutely wonderful stories, sometimes with amazing humor. She was one of the sweetest, most earnest people I have ever met, and will be missed by many of us.

“ I knew Lois through the White County Creative Writers group. I enjoyed reading her stories and talking with her at the writers meetings. She had a warm personality. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
