“ My earliest memories in Searcy have the Dacus family in them. They took care of my sister and I when our mom was giving birth to our little brother. They have been life long friends to our family. Lois was so kind, generous, and dearly loved. We are praying for Lawrence, Bruce, Casey, Becky, and all of their family & friends.
Love,
Melanie

“ I'm just hearing this very sad news. Lois and Lawrence are two of the kindest people I ever met. I had the privilege of being a Tenant in my younger days. They never raised my rent! Later in life after my daughter was born, they treated her as family as well. My sincere condolences to Lawrence and the rest of the other family. She will never be forgotten 🙏❤️

“ I can't even remember what year Lois and I became friends, but it must have been nearly 70 years ago. Our parents were friends, and I spent many nights and ate many meals with Lois, and we visited and our kids played together. She was a very kind, loving person, and my heart goes out to Lawrence and all her family. 🙏❤️
