“ So sorry to learn of the loss of your wife, Jean, and my eastern star sister. I just found out today. I know you are sad and lonesome right now and I am with you in spirit and sending prayers to our heavenly father. Now instead of being a star on this earth, you can look up in the night sky and see the brightest star up there and know she is shining to tell you everything will be all right. Star Love Darcy Baxley @ McRae, AR.
