

Lois Dean Wilkey

June 13, 1941 - December 15, 2007

Lois Dean (Sisk) Wilkey, 66, of Bradford, died Saturday, December 15, 2007. She was born June 13, 1941 in Cave City to the late Homer Olen and Bartha Jane Marlin Sisk. Lois was a Christian lady and attended the Church of God and had been a seamstress for many years. She was raised in the Monnette and Leachville, Arkansas area and had lived previously in the Hot Springs area.

She is survived by her husband, Gean Wilkey; 5 children, Jeff Wilkey of Benton, Pam Robinson of Bradford, Rai Chene Zeyloth of Judsonia, Nickie Kennedy of Benton and Cindy Trent of Hot Springs; 7 brothers and sisters, Loretta Davis of Bradford, Billy Sisk of McCrory, Jo Patton of Versailles, Mo., Jane Martin of Salem, Il., her twin brother Paul Sisk of Canton, Tx., Kay Chapman of Bradford and Ronnie Sisk of Texarkana, Tx.; 12 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by 3 brothers, James Dillard Sisk, Noah Oneal Sisk and Abner Hicks Sisk.

Visitation will be on Tuesday at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel beginning at 12:00 noon until service time at 2:00 p.m. Interment will follow in Oakland Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

“ May God Bless your family especially now and always.

December 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM