“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to Brook and Jimmy. You never knew who we were but your dad was my uncle. Lola and James Ed use to live in Springdale years ago and moved away when you two boys were small. Lola was a very caring person.

“ We missed you at our 50th reunion earlier this year. We heard you were not able to come for health reasons but I never expected to see your obituary today! I wish we could have visited but I don't travel much either now. My thoughts are with you today. I am so sorry for your families loss.
