“ So sorry for your loss. I know this is a very difficult time for the family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4, it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I sincerely hope this brings you some comfort.

“ Lee, Kids & Family. I am so sorry for your loss. As many have said we kind of lost touch with each other, but I always kept up with you and Lori. I know she loved you and the children as much as you loved her. Lori put up a good fight as long as she could for her family, but now the time has come that she couldn't fight anymore. But she will always be with you and look over you from Heaven. She is the angle that you sometimes think about and she will always be that bright star for you. God Bless you and her family and may God be with all of you in days to come.

“ Lee and family, I am so very sorry for the loss of a dear and loving woman. Lori was a true and dear friend. I will miss our talks. I pray for peace in your hearts and the blessings of our Lord to continue Lori's goals of loving and perfecting her family. Lori often spoke of the love she had for Lee, her children, parents and siblings and how very blessed she was to have your support. She was an angel on earth as she is in heaven.

“ I will always hold dear the many memories of our times together growing up and being silly girls. I am so grateful to have had you in my life and will never forget the talks over the years. While we didn't get to see each other often, when we did, we picked up right where we left off. I expect to do the same when we meet again in Heaven. Love you sweet friend!
