

Louine Miloe Woodroof

April 21, 1934 - July 27, 2023

Louine Woodroof passed away the morning of July 27, 2023 at the age of 89 surrounded by loved ones. Louine's wish for family and friends: to honor her legacy by walking steadfastly in the steps of Jesus, her life-long passion. Louine was born in Boyle, MS and raised in the Memphis area. She married Jim Woodroof while at Lipscomb and spent the rest of her life working, side by side, serving churches of Christ in South Carolina, New Zealand, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas, Massachusetts, and Oklahoma. She has five children: Tim, David, Jon, Amy, and Rachel, 15 grandchildren: Elizabeth, Emily, Erica, Sarah, James, Jonathan, Parker, Sage, Jamie, Abby, Keller, Bree, Brooke, Britain, and Braden; and 13 great-grandchildren. Louine, the second of five siblings, is survived by her sister Charlene and brother Charlie who have been very supportive during Louine's final days.

In the Woodroof's home hung a sampler with the quote,

"Let me live in my house by the side of the road.

And be a friend to man."

Sam Walter Foss

Louine exemplified this Christian value by having strangers, friends, people in need, and people in plenty find a bed, a meal, clothing, gas, shelter, whatever could be done. This was an all-consuming passion.

Louine was a talented cook, furniture refinisher, knitter (teaching all the grandchildren to knit) seamstress, speaker, Bible class teacher, thriftier, house fixer-upper, and traveled around the globe.

Louine wanted everyone to know “I’m ready to go to heaven, on my way. All is well.”
