“ Like so many others, I came to know Punk through your family store. I often heard my parents-in-law, Edward & Ida Tuck talk about stopping by there and they spoke so highly of him. This was when Jane & I lived in Liberty in the early '80s. He always greeted us with a smile when we shopped in the store. He and Mrs. Stanley helped us after our house fire in January of 1982. Punk frequently thanked me for helping install an A.C. in his camping trailer. Later, when we worked on their home, Punk wanted the best of materials and he, and Mrs. Stanley were truly wonderful customers to work for; salt of the earth. We will miss Punk, but hope to see him again in Heaven. You have our prayers and deepest sympathy.

“ My deepest thoughts and prayers to Punks Family.... I remember the kindness that Punk showed me and my family as new comers to the Nathalie area 30+ yrs ago. Many Blessings to you all.... My most memorable moment was stopping in for lunch after pulling tobacco with John Crews and crew. One of the dishes offered that day was a cube steak casserole, I asked Punk what it was called he in his simple way he said it don't have a name. Ever since then when I make it and share the recipe it's called "Punk Stanley Casserole" I will surely miss those days and Mr. Louis Edward "Punk" Stanley

“ I am deeply sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. I know that dealing with the pain associated with death is hard, but I have found these two scriptures to be comforting, Rev. 21:3,4 and John 5:28,29. We can trust that the God of Comfort, Jehovah, will bring about these promises.
