

Louise N. Daggett

July 5, 1925 - March 11, 2007

In loving memory of our mother Mrs. Louise Naomi Daggett, 81, who was called to rest March 11, 2007. She was born July 5, 1925 to Raymond and Goldie Ferguson in Bald Knob, Arkansas. On January 29, 1946 she was united in marriage to Cordie Lee Daggett of Saffell, Arkansas. To this union, three children were born. They raised their family in Milan and Moline, Illinois. Louise worked at the Buddy L Toy Factory in East Moline, Illinois for 17 years. In 1978 she completed Nurses Assistant Training and worked 4 years at the Rock Island Convalescent Home in Rock Island, Illinois. She loved children especially her grand and great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She enjoyed fishing, gardening, quilting and traveling, visiting seven countries and over half of the US. She was a red hat member and loved wearing her red hat daily during her months at the Bradford House Nursing Home in Bentonville, Arkansas. The staff was wonderful to her. Proudly, on April 28, 1996 she was baptized and united with New Bethel General Baptist Church, Bald Knob, Arkansas. The last two years she attended Grace United Methodist Church, Rogers, Arkansas, believing denomination made no difference as long as her one and only Lord Jesus was worshipped
