

Lowell Rush Brimer

February 26, 2024

Lowell Rush Brimer, 74, of Bradford, passed away Monday, February 26, 2024 at Unity Health in Searcy, Arkansas. He was born on New Year's Day in 1950 to Henry Brimer and Ruby (Goodman) Talley. Lowell was the first birth of that year in all the nation.

He was a family man. He and his wife, Bobbie were married for 49 years and had what you would call a fairytale marriage. They enjoyed music and scratch off tickets together, even though they never hit it big. Cooking for family and friends was his passion. They say he had an open-door policy; anyone was welcome. You could find him with a fishing pole and tackle in hand every chance he got.

Lowell is survived by his daughter, Jessica Brimer; sons, Michael McGlothlin, Sherman McGlothlin (Debbie); grandchildren, Dylan Allen, Jaylynn Skaggs, Ryan Green, Ashley Swan, Hali McGlothlin, Brandy McGlothlin, Tanner McGlothlin; multiple great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends. He was preceded in death by his wife, Bobbie; parents, Henry and Ruby; 10 siblings.

A Celebration of Life will be at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, March 16, 2024 at Victory Life Church, Bald Knob, Arkansas. Final resting place will be at Fredonia Cemetery, Bald Knob, Arkansas.

Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bradford, Arkansas.

www.powellfuneralhome.net

Cemetery Details

Fredonia Cemetery

Stanley Road
Bald Knob, AR 72010

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

MAR 16. 2:00 PM (CT)

Victory Life Church
Bald Knob, AR 72010

Tribute Wall

“ Powell Funeral Home & Cremation Services created a Tribute Video in memory of Lowell Rush Brimer

Powell Funeral Home & Cremation Services - March 14, 2024 at 01:34 PM

JR

“ Lowell and I were going to social security office . He hurt himself getting out the truck Cant say how very personal . He said just wait it will happen to u when u get older. He was right. We both laugh for hours about it . I love u Lowell . I hope to b half the man u were .

Jerry Reed - March 01, 2024 at 08:54 AM

PA

I haven't got to see uncle Lowell in 15 years and hate that but I promise if I showed up even with a carload of kids he would open the door and been like it was only yesterday and made pallets and told us to stay as long as we wanted and meant exactly that one time he told me and the kids that and we "visited" for 2 months lol he was a great kind loving and fun man peanut brimer ash - March 01, 2024 at 10:58 AM

RE

Always went above and beyond his call of duty. He and Aunt Bobbie had a love that most ppl will never experience. Aunt Bobbie told me a few yrs ago that he never called her out of her name not even once. They were angels on earth and now they can soar with their wings. I love you and will miss you something fierce. You were one of the last of a dying breed!

Rebecca Edwards - March 02, 2024 at 05:09 PM

JB

My dad was the greatest man there was. He was my hero and I was his baby girl until the day he died. He taught me how to love, to face your fears, even taught me to roof. He was my rock and I don't know how ill make it without him. My confront is that he is back with moma. He is happy and holding his true love again. He's home I will miss him deeply.

Jessica Brimer - March 06, 2024 at 02:25 PM