“ I remember the times spent with Lowell's family in the summers when I was just a boy. His boys were just babies. He always had time to throw a baseball around and had the first catcher's mitt I remember seeing. And on Sundays at TT and Dee's, he and Lowell would go out at halftime of the football game on and we would play football.

“ I remember growing up with

Lowell we were best friends. I would spend the night at his house & he would spend the night at mine. It is good to know that he grew up to be such an outstanding citizen.

“ Praying for your family during this difficult time. I know it is a time of both grief and celebration, and I pray for God's strength and comfort for you all. My mother, Lois, thought so much of Lowell and Doris, and I so appreciate the fact that they took her to the last high school reunion she was able to attend.
