“ Mrs. Mallett was one of the sweetest, kindest most wonderful ladies that I have ever known. I will never forget years and years ago she was making waffles on a single waffle iron. She ended up feeding all of the kids in the neighborhood waffles one at a time!!! We kinda lost touch over the years but every time we saw her, time just melted away and we were back on good old Elm Street! Rest in peace, precious lady. You will be missed!

“ When I first met Mrs. Mallett, she was the librarian at Ahlf Jr. High in Searcy, where I was in the 8th and 9th grade; I had always loved reading, so helping her in the library was great! She and the school counselor, Mrs. Maxwell, both made an impact on me, and I have never forgotten them; I also thought it was neat that I got to meet her daughter Jeanine through my daughter attending school, and the rest of her family. Mrs. Mallett will be forever remembered.
