“ I have so many memories that come to light at times. Times when i go back to my youth, and the visits to Velvet Ridge, Uncle Les, and Aunt Linda, along with my cousins resonate. I always remember the Coca'cola cooler at the old store back in the 60's, Uncle Les would say, reach in and grab one, what a thrill! I wish i could have seen more of Uncle Les, and everyone else over the years, but chocolate gravy will always leave a sweet thought where a saddened heart prays for peace. Thank you Uncle Les for loving family times!! Your nephew, Donnie Grooms, Madisonville, Texas
