

Mrs Lynda Marie Gill

December 13, 1943 - January 16, 2024

Lynda Marie Gill was born December 13, 1943, in Warren, Arkansas to the late Edward and Mari Wolfe Moseley. She went to her heavenly home on Tuesday January 16, 2024, at the age of 80.

While living in Monticello, Lynda opened a daycare in her home and later worked with children at an alternative school. After moving to Searcy, she began working as a real estate agent, dedicated to helping others achieve their dreams of home ownership.

Lynda was a long-time member of St. Paul Global Methodist Church. Over the years she participated in multiple ministries, served on various committees, and volunteered at the Good Samaritan Center for as long as her health allowed.

Beyond her spiritual devotion, Lynda was known for her vibrant personality. A true conversationalist, she had the gift of making everyone feel heard and valued. Also, if you didn't know how special her son or grandkids were to her, you would by the time you left her presence.

A great hostess, she was always willing to open her home to friends and family. Her hospitality and cooking were legendary! Her home cooked meals were a testament to her love for nurturing others. In fact, Duane might say she nurtured his friends a little too much as he would often come home to find them sitting at the table and Lynda serving them up something to eat.

Lynda's other hobbies included reading, fishing, and playing cards. While we mourn the loss of a remarkable woman, let us celebrate the beautiful life she lived and the love she shared with all who knew her.

Left to cherish her memory are her son, Duane Gill of Searcy; grandchildren Easton Gill, Elly Gill, and Eryka Berryhill. Lynda is preceded in death by a son, Michael Gill and her husband H.V. Gill.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Good Samaritan Center PO Box 1661 Searcy, Arkansas 72143.
